Data Analysis

Please refer to the School and Student Performance Data section where an analysis is provided.

Surveys

This section provides a description of surveys (i.e., Student, Parent, Teacher) used during the school-year, and a summary of results from the survey(s).

The District conducted a School Climate Survey of 8th grade students in Spring of 2019. Overall, students at Rancho Pico report feeling academically successful, emotionally happy, and connected to school. Notable results from this survey are listed below:

85% of students report earning mostly A's and B's in their classes.

85% of students report feeling welcome at school.

88% of students report feeling close to students at school.

71% of students report feeling close to at least one adult at school.

83% of students report there is a teacher or other adult who cares about them.

79% of students report they are happy to be at Rancho Pico.

74% of students report they are an active member of Rancho Pico.

87% of students report feeling physically safe at school.

88% of students report feel that an adult will help address bullying.

We also identified areas of growth from the results of this survey. These areas of growth are as follows:

- 84 out of 443 respondents reported that they have experience thoughts of suicide during the school year.
- 17 students reported that they attempted suicide during the school year.
- 29% of students reported that they often or always feel depressed or anxious.

To address these areas of growth, we have taken the following action steps:

- Rancho Pico has appointed a wellness coordinator who also is the advisor for Club Thrive (our student wellness club).
- Our counselors have been moved to the center of campus to allow easier access for students.
- We are currently in the process of building a Wellness Center for students to use throughout the school day.
- We are adding wellness tips and motivational messages for both students and staff during RPTV (morning news).

Classroom Observations

This section provides a description of types and frequency of classroom observations conducted during the school-year and a summary of findings.

Classroom observations are imbedded into our culture at Rancho Pico. Both formal and informal observations are conducted throughout the year by a variety of stakeholders: department chairs, site administration, and District staff. Our Director of Curriculum regularly visits to complete classroom observations with the principal. Approximately half of the faculty is formally evaluated each year which consists of two to three formal observations throughout the school year. In addition to these formal observations, the administrative team sets time aside each week to visit classrooms to ensure that District approved curriculum and effective instructional strategies are being utilized to provide all students with access to their education. Based on our observations, our classrooms are student-centered learning environments that offer multiple opportunities for students to work together, utilize technology, and engage in meaningful activities as part of their learning process.

Analysis of Current Instructional Program

The following statements are derived from the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) of 1965 and Essential Program Components (EPCs). In conjunction with the needs assessments, these categories may be used to discuss and develop critical findings that characterize current instructional practice for numerically significant subgroups as well as individual students who are:

- Not meeting performance goals
- Meeting performance goals
- Exceeding performance goals

Discussion of each of these statements should result in succinct and focused findings based on verifiable facts. Avoid vague or general descriptions. Each successive school plan should examine the status of these findings and note progress made. Special consideration should be given to any practices, policies, or procedures found to be noncompliant through ongoing monitoring of categorical programs.

Standards, Assessment, and Accountability

Use of state and local assessments to modify instruction and improve student achievement (ESEA)

Rancho Pico utilizes all available assessment data to inform decisions related to improving student achievement. The following are examples of the types of data we use: CAASPP, ELPAC, IEP assessment results, quarterly student grades, discipline, needs assessments, iLit student lexile results, survey results, input from parents, review of a student's cumulative file, etc. In addition to data related to all students, we examine sub-group data such as achievement based on gender, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, and disability to inform decisions related to our professional development activities and school goals.

The following are our results for the past three years of CAASPP data for English Language Arts and mathematics, identifying the percentages of students, by grade level, who have met or exceeded standards.

7th Grade ELA: 2016-17 (82%), 2017-18 (85%), 2018-19 (84%)

8th Grade ELA: 2016-17 (83%), 2017-18 (76%), 2018-19 (82%)

7th Grade math: 2016-17 (74%), 2017-18 (65%), 2018-19 (67%)

8th Grade math: 2016-17 (69%), 2017-18 (74%), 2018-19 (75%)

Based on these results coupled with data from the student survey, the following goals were written for the 2019/2020 school year:

2019/20 Goal #1

Dashboard - English Learner students in ELA

In the 2019/20 school year, Rancho Pico will increase the percentage of English Learner students either meeting or exceeding standards in ELA by 5%, as measured by CAASPP.

2019/20 Goal #2

Wellness - Student feelings of anxiety and connection to adults at school

In the 2019/20 school year, Rancho Pico will decrease the number of students reporting they often or always feel anxious or depressed by 3% and increase the percentage of students responding they feel close to at least one adult at school by 3%, as measured by the School Climate Survey.

Use of data to monitor student progress on curriculum-embedded assessments and modify instruction (EPC)

Rancho Pico is home to a highly trained and dedicated staff who work collaboratively to ensure we are meeting the needs of every student we serve. Central to this work is the use of data to monitor student progress towards mastery of content standards for every course we teach. For our general education students, each of our interdisciplinary teams (6 in total) meet regularly to review all available data to identify strategies to support struggling students. We conduct student study team meetings where school staff (teachers, the student's counselor, and an administrator) partner with the student and his/her family to develop a plan to address the student's specific needs. For our special education students, we immediately call for an IEP team meeting when a student needs assistance of any kind (academic, social, and emotional.) Further, we have dedicated time for professional development each month where we continue to learn best practices for engaging students in their learning and improve our assessments for measuring student learning. Central to our professional development work is our belief that EVERY student can learn with the correct strategies and supports in place.

Staffing and Professional Development

Status of meeting requirements for highly qualified staff (ESEA)

Currently 100% of teachers at Rancho Pico meet the state credential requirements and are teaching within their certified subject area.

Sufficiency of credentialed teachers and teacher professional development (e.g., access to instructional materials training on SBE-adopted instructional materials) (EPC)

All schools hire future teachers from those who apply through EdJoin. All schools have access to interviewing the same credentialed teachers within the district. School site administrators conduct their own interviews and make their own selections. All teachers have ample opportunity for continued professional development annually as provided by the District and the school site professional development team on a regular monthly basis. Teachers can select and personalize their professional development goals through a variety of workshops, collaborative meetings, conferences, and department and/or grade level collaboration time.

Alignment of staff development to content standards, assessed student performance, and professional needs (ESEA)

All professional development efforts are aligned with the Common Core State Standards and the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS). Our professional development plan is developed annually in collaboration with site administration and the professional development team. The professional development team is comprised of teacher leaders who represent our overall faculty. Our school-wide goals are developed through the use of student data and from input from our leadership team (which is comprised of team leaders, department chairs, counseling, ASB, and administration). Our school goals support the larger goals of the district as defined by the LCAP.

Ongoing instructional assistance and support for teachers (e.g., use of content experts and instructional coaches) (EPC)

In addition to our Professional Development team, teachers and staff receive ongoing instructional assistance from our site Instructional Coach, Wellness Coordinator, and multiple teachers on special assignment (TOSA) at the District level. Rancho Pico faculty have greatly benefited from TOSA support in the following academic areas: English, math, history, and science. Each department chair also receives guidance and support through department meetings at the District level.

Teacher collaboration by grade level (kindergarten through grade eight [K–8]) and department (grades nine through twelve) (EPC)

Rancho Pico voted in an Early Release schedule for Tuesdays to allow for departmental and team collaboration. As a result of this schedule, students are released at 1:50 pm on Tuesdays and collaboration activities run from 2:05 to 3:05 pm. Activities during this time include, but are not limited to the following: department meetings, department collaboration, instructional planning, data and assessment review, professional development activities, team planning meetings, training (site and District), observations of teachers at other school sites, interdisciplinary lesson planning, etc. In addition to collaboration, our interdisciplinary teams enjoy a common prep period. This time is used for the purposes of planning curriculum, meeting with students and their families, planning team events and activities, and support special education students through the IEP process.

Teaching and Learning

Alignment of curriculum, instruction, and materials to content and performance standards (ESEA)

Lessons are designed using the district-adopted curriculum. Instructional design is based on Common Core standards, the Next Generation Science Standards, and Math Practice Standards. The use of common curriculum guides helps to ensure that all students are receiving grade level standards-based instruction. The English department administers a district-wide Performance Task twice a year to calibrate assessments and develop future lessons and instructional needs based on assessment data for student mastery of concepts in literacy in addition to preparing students for CAASPP.

Adherence to recommended instructional minutes for reading/language arts and mathematics (K–8) (EPC)

All students are enrolled in the required number of minutes for ELA and math every day as reported through the monitoring of daily instructional minutes.

Lesson pacing schedule (K–8) and master schedule flexibility for sufficient numbers of intervention courses (EPC)

Additional support for English Learners is provided within the school day in designated language support classes called Achieve. Learning Strategies classes are also provided for students with disabilities.

Availability of standards-based instructional materials appropriate to all student groups (ESEA)

All content areas have standards-based instructional materials provided by the district for all student groups.

Use of SBE-adopted and standards-aligned instructional materials, including intervention materials, and for high school students, access to standards-aligned core courses (EPC)

All students have SBE adopted materials for their courses, intervention materials, and access to standards-aligned core courses.

Opportunity and Equal Educational Access

Services provided by the regular program that enable underperforming students to meet standards (ESEA)

We offer a variety of intervention options for students during the regular school day through parallel classes, flexible advisory time, and after school through intervention sessions. We also ensure that teachers are available for supporting students on a daily basis before school and throughout open periods.

Evidence-based educational practices to raise student achievement

There are multiple days where teachers collaborate throughout the year in designated collaboration time as well as in faculty meetings and professional development meetings, to discuss evidence-based practices and educational research around a variety of topics.

Parental Engagement

Resources available from family, school, district, and community to assist under-achieving students (ESEA)

Regular communication is sent out to our families and surrounding community through monthly or quarterly meetings with our various parent groups. Parents of our English Learners meet quarterly to inform our EL student population and their families of important events and ways to support their students in their education.

Involvement of parents, community representatives, classroom teachers, other school personnel, and students in secondary schools, in the planning, implementation, and evaluation of ConApp programs (5 California Code of Regulations 3932)

Parents, teachers, staff members, and students are actively involved in the development, implementation, revision, and annual evaluation of our School Plan for effectively using Title 3 funds in our school's English Learner program through quarterly PAC, ELPAC, and School Site Council meetings. Parents, teachers, staff, and students are additionally involved each year in the development, implementation, and evaluation of the district's Title 3 plan to ensure academic achievement and language proficiency for English Language Learners through quarterly DELAC meetings.

Funding

Services provided by categorical funds that enable underperforming students to meet standards (ESEA)

The district provides categorical funding that allows each site to create an annual Intervention Plan for providing before and after school tutoring, and/or add extra 1/6th teaching assignments (where possible) into the school day for parallel support classes in Math and/or English. The district also provides professional development for teachers in best practices for supporting underperforming students through literacy across all disciplines, differentiated instruction, language support, equal access to rigorous academic content standards, support from Bilingual Instructional Assistants, the effective use of technology for increased student learning, and strategies for engaging all students in learning.

Fiscal support (EPC)

The district funds quarterly Parent and Student Engagement evening workshops, the LINK mentoring program, Counseling services, crisis intervention, student wellness support, donated computers for student use at home, translation services to increase parent engagement, college and career fairs, community resource events, and School Formula Accounts (SFA) for discretionary site needs.

Stakeholder Involvement

How, when, and with whom did the school consult as part of the planning process for this SPSA/Annual Review and Update?

Involvement Process for the SPSA and Annual Review and Update

Rancho Pico reconvened our School Site Council this year to allow all stakeholders an opportunity to offer input into the creation of our SPSA. Our team consists of parents, students, and staff members. Parents and students were consulted and involved in the planning process and review of this plan (the SPSA). In addition, representatives from our ELAC and our Parent Advisory Council (PAC) were consulted.

1. All indicators are green.
2. Information regarding English Learner Progress is not available because the State requires 3 years of data on the ELPAC to show trends in progress.
3. Rancho Pico has room for improvement as we strive to hit blue in all areas.

Conclusions based on this data:

- Over half of our EL students are moderately developed or well developed setting them up for success in their general education classes.
- A little less than a fourth of students are at the beginning stage of language acquisition. These students are new to the country and require extensive language support.

Classroom teachers must comprise a majority of persons represented under section (a). At secondary schools there must be, in addition, equal numbers of parents or other community members selected by parents, and students. Members must be selected by their peer group.
