Dear Ms. Arnone

Thank you for your trust and for the opportunity to provide you with this security service proposal. At Sterling General Security ("SGS"), we take security very seriously and show it in everything that we do. Successful and effective security partnerships begin when the security provider understands the business needs of the client. We at SGS are confident that we can deliver a comprehensive security program that will be within your budget. Understanding your security needs, objectives, and overall culture of your organization.

SGS views our clients as true partners and the success of their programs is the vitalizing focus for every effort we put forth.

All the resources of SGS stand behind this proposal. Please contact me at (818) 240-3900 or Matt@securitysgs.com with any questions or concerns regarding our proposal.

Regards,

Matt Lavizani
